

INTIMATIONS

WELCOME to our Worship today. If you are visiting we hope you enjoy being with us, and we invite you to sign the Visitors' Book. Tea and coffee will be served in the hall after the morning service. The Church and hall have loop systems and those with hearing aids should switch to position 'T'. If you are able, please stand as the Bible is brought in and taken out.

SUNDAY CLUB AND FYF Sunday Club and FYF meet today at 10.50am. The Sunday Club and FYF are then on holiday and will return on Sunday 16th August. As always there is a Crèche for pre-school children each Sunday morning.

PRAYER GROUP The prayer group have now suspended their meetings for a few weeks and will start again in the first week in August. However, although we are not meeting for the next few weeks, that doesn't mean to say that we need to stop praying and I would encourage everyone to take time to pray each week.

PASTORAL CARE TEAM If you need some help with getting to appointments or small household tasks or you'd just like a wee visit, contact the team. You can do this either through your elder or the coordinator, Janette Steele (01349 861591). We will make every effort to assist. Please allow time for arrangements to be made.

BOOKS FOR MALAWI Many thanks to all who have donated books for Malawi. Assistance would be welcome in the Church hall on Friday 3rd July from 2.30pm to check over and pack up the books which have been collected for school and college libraries in Malawi.

WORLD MISSION COUNCIL NEWSLETTER The latest issue, on the subject of relationships with Christians and Churches overseas is available. Those who take Life and Work should receive a copy along with their magazine. Others may pick up a copy from the table at the back of the Church.

PASTORAL DUTIES Rev'd Graham is on holiday until 30th June, during which time pastoral cover is provided by Rev. Scott Polworth (01463 870259).

ORDER OF SERVICE All intimations should be sent to John Smith by 5 p.m. on Thursdays at strathdrynie@gmail.com or by telephone to 01349 865915.

GUILD The Guild is having a visit to Cameron House on 1st July leaving Maryburgh/Conon Bridge at 1.45pm - those participating will be informed of transport arrangements. The theme of the programme will be VE Day. The Guild would welcome anyone who has memories of that day (first-hand or inherited) which they are willing to share with the residents to join them for the visit. Any memorabilia which anyone could bring along or loan would also be greatly appreciated. Please sign the sheet at the back of the Church, or speak to Janet Winchester.

COMMEMORATION A Commemorative Garden has been established in the grounds of Ben Wyvis school to remember the lives of young men from our community who lost their lives in the First World War. A short service of commemoration will be held on Thursday 2nd July at 3.15pm to mark the opening of this garden and all are welcome to come along.

FERINTOSH FOCUS The latest edition of the Newsletter is ready for distribution. Please uplift from the annex.

Please take this home with you to help you with your prayers this week.

Don't be selfish, don't try to impress others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourselves. Don't look out only for your own interests, but take an interest in others, too. You must have the same attitude that Christ Jesus had. Philippians 2: 3-5 (New Living Translation)

- † Almighty God, we earnestly pray that leaders of nations across the world will work together more for peace and justice. Confound the plans of those who seek to oppress and exploit others on the basis of their religion and ethnicity, and bring increasing harmony to our world.
- † Pray for the Walter and Joan Gray Home, Scalloway, Shetland. This is a 16 bed care home in the central area of Shetland and the only home in the isles not run by the local authority. Give thanks for the positive testimony of the home in the community, and pray that their work, done in Jesus' name, would open the hearts of many to the love of God. Pray for the work of the Day Centre. The needs of the clients are increasingly diverse and challenging. Please pray for wisdom, sensitivity and patience for both staff and clients. (CrossReach Prayer Diary)
- † Pray for all who have been the victims of violent crime. Pray that their confidence in life may not be shattered by their experiences. Pray that they may know they have a shoulder to cry on and a presence to give them strength to carry on. Pray too for the families who have lost loved ones due to violence. Pray too for the perpetrators of such crime that they might come to realise the futility of that way of dealing with life.
- † Remember to pray for yourself. Give thanks for anything good which has happened to you recently and take your troubles to the Lord. Ask for God to be close to you this coming week.

I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year: "Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown." And he replied: "Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the hand of God. That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way." (Minnie Louise Haskins 1875-1957, quoted by King George VI in his Christmas broadcast 1939)
