If you help the poor, you are lending to the Lord and he will repay you.
Proverbs 19:17 (New Living translation)

† Father, You created us equally, male and female, in Your image. Yet all over the world girls and women face discrimination, oppression, lack of education and other disadvantages. May people come to recognise and speak out about these real injustices.

Please remember the millions of women and girls who work long hours collecting water and firewood, caring for livestock and cultivating crops, looking after their families and much more, yet have few rights and earn very little.

† As we continue to tackle the root causes of trafficking, please pray for Bihar state in north-east India, where poverty means that many children are vulnerable to trafficking. Pray for Tearfund's campaign "No Child Taken".

† Bless all those striving to bring healing and justice to people affected by leprosy around the world. Give them the skills, wisdom and strength that they need to care for those who need help just because they have leprosy. May we one day see a world where nobody is disadvantaged in any way just because they have leprosy. May we see a world without leprosy.

† How can we live life to the full? By obedience to God in all aspects of our lives, including the way we speak to, and treat others. We ask God's blessing on each individual person and pray that we will experience "life to the full" as we seek to live holy, obedient lives.

Whoever of you loves life and desires to see many good days, keep your tongue from evil and your lips from speaking lies. Psalm 34 :12,13
