

INTIMATIONS

WELCOME to our Worship today. If you are visiting we hope you enjoy being with us, and we invite you to sign the Visitors' Book. Tea and coffee will be served in the hall after the morning service. The Church and hall have loop systems and those with hearing aids should switch to position 'T'. If you are able, please stand as the Bible is brought in and taken out.

SUNDAY CLUB AND FYF Sunday Club and FYF are on holiday and will restart again on Sunday 21st August, however, as always children are welcome in Church over the holidays and we would be delighted to see them. There is a Crèche for pre-school children each Sunday morning PRAYER GROUP The next prayer meeting will take place on Wednesday 6th July at 10.00am in the small hall.

PASTORAL CARE If you require some assistance, do let the team know and we will do our very best to help. Either contact your elder or the coordinator, Janette Steele (01349 861591). Thank you to those who have indicated they will be able to help the Team on an occasional basis. We would still ask for volunteers and, of course, everyone's prayers for this work done in Christ's name.

PASTORAL DUTIES Rev'd Graham can be contacted on 861275 if required for any Pastoral duties.

ORDER OF SERVICE All intimations should be sent to John Smith by 5pm on Thursdays at strathdrynie@gmail.com or by telephone to 01349 865915.

Hymn: 512 'To God be the glory'

Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
praise Him all creatures here below,
praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Majesty

Majesty, worship His majesty;
unto Jesus be glory, honour and praise.
Majesty, kingdom, authority, flows from His throne unto His own, His anthem raise.
So exalt, lift up on high the name of Jesus,
magnify, come glorify, Christ Jesus the King.
Majesty, worship His majesty,
Jesus who died, now glorified, King of all kings.

HIGHLAND FOODBANK Please leave your donations of food in the annex of the Church. These are even more necessary during the school holidays when families are not receiving school meals and find it even harder to manage from week to week. Toothpaste and toiletries (baby ones especially) are very welcome too since, if you can't afford food, you can't afford these "luxuries"!

BLYTHSWOOD At the rear door of the Church, there is a large red bin for any donations. You don't have to take your unwanted goods further. They are collected regularly.

GUILD There is a list at the back of the Church for anyone from the Guild or Pastoral Care Team who would like to join the Seagull Trust cruise on Thursday morning August 4th. It doesn't matter if you have enjoyed this trip previously - we can go again!

Please take this home with you to help you with your prayers this week.

Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you. 1 Peter 5:7

- † Lead us from death to life, from falsehood to truth. Lead us from despair to hope, from fear to trust. Lead us from hate to love, from war to peace. Let peace fill our hearts, our world, our universe. (Prayer placed on the peace table in Durham Cathedral, during the Gulf War)
- † Lord Jesus, in the darkness of our loss we come to you; We cannot believe what has happened and yet we know it's true; sorrow and anxiety fill our lives and it's hard to find rest. So we come to you, Lord Jesus, we bring to you the burden in our hearts - it is too heavy for us; please take the weight and bear it with us, Lord. And give us your peace. (Christian Publicity Organization)
- † Lord, you don't have an easy time dealing with me. I use the right words, wear all the appropriate labels, and profess to trust you but when the moment comes to put myself completely in your hands, my lifestyle says I don't. My words and deeds don't seem to synchronize, their contradictory signals just confuse.
I come to you for help, but when it's offered I'm not sure I want it after all. I'd rather choose an easier way. Your presence sometimes seems to threaten, Lord, rather than heal, and your requests can work out hard. And what I'm struggling to say, although the words are hard to find, is that I don't have an easy time, either, dealing with you.
You tell me to relax, and put my trust in you, to let you take the strain. But that's not easy, Lord, for one who's always tried to organise himself, manage his time, and stay on top of things. There's still a bit of me, a lot of me, to tell the truth, that wants it my own way.
Lord, all I can do is ask, once more, for help. Not to solve immediate problems but to help let them go. To find the grace to put my life and being firmly in your care. Open my hands, loosen my grip, and wait for you.
(Breaking the Rules by Eddie Askew)

Say the Lord's Prayer, slowly and thoughtfully. Pause to reflect on each phrase.
