KILDARY KROAKERS All singers are warmly invited to join the Kildary Kroakers for a fun 'from scratch' performance of Roger Jones's popular musical While Shepherds Watched. The rehearsal will run from 2.30-4.30pm on Saturday 10th December in Logie Church. There will be no auditions and both words and music copies will be available to borrow for the day. After a break, the performance will start at 6pm and will be followed by light refreshments, so even if you don't sing, you can come and enjoy the music and fellowship. There will be a retiring collection, to be shared by Christian Music Ministries and Kilmuir & Logie Easter Church of Scotland. We would be pleased to see anybody who would be interested in joining us for this performance.

Please take this home with you to help you with your prayers this week.

You open your hand and satisfy the desires of every living thing.
Psalm 145: 16

- † Father, we see all around us disasters, some are natural and others man-made. Help us to be constant in prayer for the victims of such and help us to be generous with whatever resources we have to alleviate such. We think especially of those caught up in the rail disaster in India and the floods in our own country from Storm Angus.
- † Father, we give thanks for our friends near and far. We ask that you may keep them safe in your arms and provide for them according to their needs.
- † Lord, we ask you to be very close to all who are sad this week. There are those who are lonely, who are mourning or who are very worried either about themselves or someone they care about. Lord, give them your peace.
- † Lord, may my identity be so rooted and grounded in you that I can sense your love for those around me and be their bridge to you.

Lord Jesus Christ, light of the world, shine on us so that, the night of sin and error being driven away, we may walk without stumbling, as in the day. (Erasmus 1466 – 1536)
