Thanks go to all who helped in any way prior to the event, on the day itself and to everyone who donated food, congregation members, local businesses, and those who came along to enjoy the food and fellowship for this fund raising event.

The final total from all monies raised from Christian Aid week will be announced as soon as the 'big count' has taken place.

Please do not remove the folder from the church and leave it in the annexe once finished with. Minutes of future Kirk Session meetings will be added once they have been agreed as a correct record.

CAN YOU HELP? Members of the congregation will be aware that our organist, Doreen Suckling, is currently unwell and unable to play for us on a Sunday morning. Finding a relief organist is at times proving difficult if not impossible, and so we are very grateful for Hugh Steele acting as the Digibox operator. However, we need to identify more Digibox operators so as to share the load. Therefore, if you would be willing to be trained as a Digibox operator, please contact either the Session Clerk, Martin McLauchlan, or Hugh Steele. Full training will be provided.

Please take this home with you to help you with your prayers this week.

Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have summoned you by name; you are mine. When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; Isaiah 43: 1-2

- † Lord, this week we have been asking why? We do not understand; we find it difficult to make sense of things; we seem to have seen great evil and hatred. Help us, Lord, we beseech you. However, we also give thanks to you, Lord, for we have seen your love in action all over our country, most especially in the great city of Manchester. We ask you to be with all those who need you most as a result of this atrocity--- the relations of those who died; the seriously hurt children, young people and their families; the medical staff and emergency service personnel. Give them strength to carry on and wisdom and compassion throughout the difficult days ahead.
- † Heavenly Father, you made us to worship you, to walk in step with you. Thank you, Lord, that, as we submit to you, you guide our path and fulfil your purposes in us. We pray for our brothers and sisters in Christ who are suffering today, those who are in danger of giving in to fear or anger and bitterness. Help them to guard their hearts so that they will not be diverted from the path you have set before them. (Release Prayershield)
- † In May, continue to pray for Christians in Central Asia, Egypt, Malaysia, Sudan and North Korea.
- † O God, you have graciously brought us to this hour, the time when you poured out your Holy Spirit in tongues of fire upon your apostles, filling them with the gift of your grace; so, most wonderful Lord, may we too receive this blessing; and as we seek to praise you, merciful God, in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, may we share in your eternal kingdom. For your name is worthy of all honour and majesty and you are to be glorified in hymns of blessing, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, now and for ever, to the ages of ages. Amen (Eastern Orthodox Church)
- † O Lord, the Scriptures say "there is a time for silence and a time for speech." Saviour, teach me the silence of humility, the silence of wisdom, the silence of love, the silence of perfection, the silence that speaks without words, the silence of faith. Lord, teach me to silence my own heart that I may listen to the gentle movement of the Holy Spirit within me and sense the depths which are of God. (Frankfurt Prayer 16thC)

We often rush into words of prayer. But we find God when we take time to be quiet, realizing that God is close and wanting to speak as well as to listen to us, though we may find listening hard at first.
