There is no one holy like the Lord; there is no one besides you; there is no Rock like our God. 1Samuel 2:2 (NIV)

- † Pray for CrossReach's Whiteinch Move On Service which provides six months of housing support to adults who are in recovery from substance misuse and have completed residential rehabilitation. Pray for the service users to continue to sustain their recovery journey; pray for those who are showing interest in exploring faith; remember those who have recently left the service who are making the transition in to voluntary placements and work; pray for the physical health of those who use the service to see improvements; pray for the ongoing family connections to be strengthened; pray for the staff to continue to work closely as a team. (CrossReach Prayer Diary)
- † Pray for all our young people in this community. Bless and guard them as they return to education after the summer break. Bless the teachers and other staff. May they allow the youngsters in their care to reach the potential in every single one. Bless the families as they prepare the young folk to take the next step along the world.
- † Pray that state officials in Pakistan will have their eyes opened to the suffering of non-Muslim minorities in their nation—and resolve to uphold religious freedom for every citizen. Continue to pray for persecuted Christians in Iran, Myanmar and Indonesia.
- † Christ our hope, we give you glory for the great grace by which upon the cross you stretched out your hands in love to us all. By that same grace come, risen Saviour, into every gesture of unity and fellowship we make toward one another. May the peace we share be your peace. (James Wallace)

The church is the whole family of God's people - down the ages and across the world - who have become God's children through faith in Jesus Christ. Local churches are branches of the family. When we come to church to worship God and learn from him, we meet as a family. (The Lion Prayer Collection)
